

HOUSING INSECURITY

among San Francisco State University Students

DEFINING HOUSING INSECURITY

Homelessness

lack of housing that is fixed, regular, or adequate

Insecure Housing

housing situation that may not remain fixed, regular, and adequate

Recent Housing Insecurity

secure housing but a recent history of housing insecurity within the past 3 years

Housing Secure

consistent, adequate, and safe housing with consistent funding to cover expenses

10.0%
CSU

17.7%
SF State

SCOPE OF ISSUE

percentage of students that reported being homeless on or more times in the last 12 months based on the combined HUD and DOE definitions

IMPACT

low academic performance and motivation difficulty studying and poor time management anxiety, stress, fear, and suicidal feelings fatigue and sleeping problems poor physical health and more days of injury